James Burke-Dunsmore is a writer, actor and director, and has helped produce over 100 plays based upon the Bible. He is a specialist in producing large scale outdoor productions that bring together otherwise isolated people and communities, both here and abroad. For over 15 years, schools across the UK have invited him to run drama workshops, helping teachers and pupils to heighten their experience and understanding of Biblical stories.

Wintershall is best known for bringing the story of Jesus to life through productions of The Nativity, The Passion of Jesus and The Life of Christ. Wintershall Education supports school trips to the performances, but also aims to provide engaging materials that can be used to enhance collective worship and RE teaching and learning.
